Venture Construction Group honors veterans at Luke's Wings Heroes Gala

Leading construction and restoration company sponsors wounded warriors and their families

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Venture Construction Group sponsors Luke's Wings 4th Annual Heroes Gala on April 11, 2015 at the Ritz-Carlton in Washington, D.C. In addition to corporate event sponsorship, Venture Construction Group CEO Steve Shanton is sponsoring a warrior veteran and guest to attend the gala. The annual fundraiser raises monies to provide complimentary travel services for wounded service members and their loved ones. The black tie event will feature a cocktail reception, three-course dinner and an award presentation. The evening includes a runway show featuring looks by national and local designers modeled by active duty service members, wounded warriors and veterans.

"We have helped thousands of homeowners, building owners, and property management companies recover from disasters and storm damage. We firmly believe in helping our United States active-duty, retired and military veterans and families on the road to recovery, and we thank them for their service and sacrifice," says Steve Shanton, CEO and founder of Venture Construction Group.

Venture Construction Group is headquartered in Fairfax, Virginia, and the company sponsors a variety of charities annually. In addition to providing construction, renovation and restoration services nationwide, Venture Construction Group helps property owners recover quickly after storm events such as hail, tornadoes, hurricanes, wind, fire and flood. Giving back to philanthropic charities and helping others is an integral part of the company's mission.

The 2015 Luke's Wings Heroes Gala anticipates three hundred guests, including military heroes and families, dignitaries, corporations and corporate sponsors and prominent members of the Washington, D.C. military, political and philanthropic communities who support active duty and military veterans.

This year, Luke's Wings Heroes Gala will honor Corporal Ryan Wightman, United States Marine Corps, with the 2015 Hero Award and the Delta SkyWish Charity Program / Delta Air Lines with the 2015 Community Impact Award.

"I have the utmost respect for military veterans and their families, as my dad served in the United States Marine Corps. It's an integral part of our company mission to support our servicemen and women who serve our country," says Shanton.
