Venture Construction Group sponsors Centreville High School Wildcats Local construction and restoration company supports athletic program and baseball

Fairfax, Va. – Venture Construction Group sponsors Centreville High School Wildcats baseball team in the 2015-2016 school year with a platinum level sponsorship. Monies go towards much needed uniforms, equipment for the school's popular junior varsity and varsity teams, facility improvements, and the teams' spring break trip. Centreville High School, home of the Wildcats, takes baseball very seriously.

“Community and local business support is so important to us to keep our athletic programs thriving and our students involved. Last year we were able to buy a batting cage that drops down from the ceiling. We really appreciate sponsors like Venture Construction Group! Our players are taken care of and we offer great facilities and top notch athletic programs,” says Scott Findley, Centreville High School varsity head coach.

The Centreville High School baseball junior varsity team was awarded the conference title for the first time last month. Several players received conference honors including: 1st Team: Outfield- Matthew Blaise; Designated Hitter- Carter Bach; Utility- Daniel Woodruff. 2nd Team: Outfield- Trey House; Honorable Mention-Pitcher Brian Carmichael and Sean Culleiton ; Catcher- Jake Behne; 2B Nathan Nguyen; 3B Daniel Lachance; Utility- Ryan Brusick.

“Supporting education, schools and extracurricular activities is very important to us. I grew up in this area, and love baseball, it's a win-win for all. Go Wildcats!” says Steve Shanton, CEO and founder of Venture Construction Group.
