Venture Construction Group helps rebuild at Girl Scouts Nation's Capital

Leading local construction and restoration company donates crews, supplies, labor to camp properties

Washington, D.C. – Venture Construction Group donates crews, supplies and materials for camp building repairs at the Girl Scout Council of the Nation's Capital to help restore buildings in time for camp. Venture Construction Group has worked on several projects including roofing, siding and painting buildings throughout some of the Girl Scout Council camp properties located in Greater Washington, the District of Columbia, Virginia, Maryland and West Virginia.

"Venture Construction Group is always professional, kind, on time, and communicates well. When undecided on some of the details on design and colors, Steve Shanton made some excellent recommendations to help our team make the best decisions," says Tammy Worcester, property manager at Girl Scouts Nation's Capital.

According to the Girl Scout Council of the Nation's Capital, the Girl Scouts' brand is one of the top five most recognized brands in the country. The Girl Scout Council of the Nation's Capital is proud to be the largest Girl Scout council in the country with nearly 90,000 members, and has a tremendous impact on girls throughout the Greater Washington Region. With support from corporations and foundations, dedicated adult volunteers, parents and staff, the Girl Scout Council of the Nation's Capital provides the Girl Scout experience to 89,181 members: 63,243 girls and 25,938 adults in the Greater Washington Region, which includes the District of Columbia and in Maryland: Allegany, Washington, Frederick, Montgomery, Prince George's, Charles, Calvert and St. Mary's Counties; in Virginia: Page, Shenandoah, Warren, Frederick, Clarke, Fauquier, Loudoun, Fairfax, Arlington and Prince William Counties; and in West Virginia: Jefferson, Berkeley, Morgan, Hampshire, Mineral, Hardy and Grant Counties.

"I have a little girl who isn't quite ready to join the Girl Scouts, but she will when she gets old enough! Venture Construction Group helps residential and commercial property owners with construction, restoration and repairs. Giving back to our local communities is just a part of what we do," says Steve Shanton, CEO and founder of Venture Construction Group.

Venture Construction Group is headquartered in Fairfax, Va. and King of Prussia, PA. The company sponsors a variety of charities annually. In addition to providing construction, renovation and restoration services nationwide, Venture Construction Group helps property owners recover quickly after storm events such as hail, tornadoes, hurricanes, wind, fire and flood. Giving back to philanthropic charities and helping others is an integral part of the company's mission.
